Counselee Informed Consent Form

A Certified Biblical Counselor is a person trained to listen and care for others. Certified Biblical Counselors are not licensed therapists. Certified Biblical Counselors are trained in the skills of listening, clarifying, and leading counselees based upon the truths and standards of Scripture, all undertaken through prayerful submission of the leading of God. We offer a response to your personal or family needs based on the understanding that God is close to the broken hearted, gives strength to the weary and hope for the hurting.

Counseling Agreement:

As a Counselee, I understand the following:

1. The contact I have is with a Certified Biblical Counselor.
2. In some cases, I may be seen by co-counselors.
3. All meetings are confidential. This confidentiality includes disclosure to LifeChange Biblical Co-counselors if necessary.
4. All meetings will usually be 50-60 minute sessions. The quantity of sessions will be decided by the Certified Biblical Counselor and discussed with the Counselee throughout the process
These meetings will be arranged through the office or scheduled on-line through wonbyonebiblicalcounseling.org and meetings will take place at the agreed upon location.
5. In the event that Biblical Counseling is not the best course of action for the counselee, a referral will be made to an outside referral source provided to the counselee by the counselor.
6. Out of courtesy for the counselor, I will give at least 24 hours prior notice before cancelling an appointment. In the event that the client does not show up for appointment without prior notification the counselor can determine whether future appointments will be accepted.
7. Fees are collected when appointment is scheduled on-line or at the beginning of a session. On-line fees paid are non-refundable for any session cancelled less than 24 hours prior to the booked session. In-person payments are non-refundable once a session has begun, even if session is cut short by request of the client or counselor.

I have read the above conditions and agree to abide by them.
